

Memorandum of Agreement

between

Department of Indonesian Language and Literature
Semarang State University

and

Departement Malay-Indonesia Studies
Hankuk University Of Foreign Studies

Both parties have met in a formal forum and both realize that they have a number of common grounds and interests. Hereby, both mentioned parties agree to collaborate on the following points:

- Point 1 Student exchange of undergraduate and post graduate level in particular period to join in academic activities including formal and informal lectures related with theory development and acquiring the latest information in the field of Indonesian language and literature.
- Point 2 Staff and faculty members exchange in particular period to join in academic activities including formal and informal lectures related with theory development and acquiring the latest information in the field of Indonesian language and literature.
- Point 3 The development of technology and material including curriculum, syllabus, handout, and text books in the field of Indonesian language and literature.
- Point 4 The development of technology and supporting instruments including language and literature laboratory as well as teaching media in the field of language and literature.
- Point 5 Opportunity for researchers to conduct research in the field of language and literature, including literature review, research data collection and processing, and research reporting.
- Point 6 Joint authorship of scientific articles to establish a joint academic journal or to be published in the existing journals both parties already possess.
- Point 7 Joint administration of International or Regional Seminar in the field of language and literature.
- Point 8 Joint adminisitation of professional training and workshop for the development of human resources employed by both parties.

This agreement affects both signing parties since the date it is signed to the next 5 (five) years. Any cancellation from either party should be informed to the other 6 months prior to the intended closure.

Semarang, 1 February 2013

Representing
Semarang State University,

Dr. Subyantoro, M.Hum.

Representing
Hankuk University of Foreign Studies,

Prof. Koh Young Hun

Witnessed
Dean of Faculty of Language and Art,

Prof. Dr. Agus Nuryatin, M.Hum.